ESTATE PLANNING

You have Planned for Everything—Right???

You might not have thought of it, but every major event in your life takes some planning....end-of-life events are no different. With the proper protection you can make sure everything is anticipated and taken care of in advance. Funds used for funeral expenses and avoid probate.

The loss of a loved one is a very stressful, emotional time. The last thing a person wants to do is burden their family with additional stress of legal and financial matters. That's where Gromowski Law Firm, LLC can offer peace of mind. By taking a proactive approach to Estate Planning we can help you focus on the family that will be left behind and what they will need to handle. When the complex matters of real estate, financial and tax matters are all pre-planned, you are saving your family countless hours and great expense of going through Probate Court. Whether your estate is large or small, Estate Planning will insure that your final wishes are carried out and that your family remains burden free.

Ask us about: Avoiding Probate, Last Wills and Testaments, Living Trust, Irrevocable Trust, Special Needs Trust, Marital Property Agreements, Health Care Power of Attorney, Durable Power of Attorney for Finance, Life Estates, Payable on Death, Transfer on Death, Guardianship, and Nursing Home planning.

ELDER LAW

As we grow older, seniors and the disabled know that their independence, financial security and quality of life are very important. Medical costs can quickly consume an entire estate. Elder Law focuses on the issues of this special group. It gives them power to make choices, before the need arises.

Many people want to 'GIFT' to their children, grandchildren or charities...our mission, at Gromowski Law Firm, is to help clients through Advance Planning that will preserve those assets in the future. Having an attorney that knows Elder Law could be your solution. What happens upon the death, or disability, will be decided by you - or the courts! The choice is yours! Your Elder Care planning needs will vary according to the value and type of assets you own, along with your desires.

Ask us about: estate planning, title 19, nursing home spend downs, exempt assets, guardianship, estate recovery, gifts, transfer of assets, divestment, long term care, and funeral trust.

BUSINESS LAW
